MODERN SALADS

Made with MEAT

Do you like to explore? Chart your course for fresh places—the refrigerator. Chart your way if hearty meals who like to go out on an evening and who like good foods when the evening is done.

If the refrigerator holds a sample of cold cooked meats such as ham loaf, chicken, corned beef and other canned meats—these are the foods that stick to explorers' ribs after an evening of dancing or skating or driving in the open. Tossed lightly together with crisp greens, they are not only good—they're dietetic.

Dishes Worth Discovering

Meat and Cucumber Salad Loaf: Soften one tablespoon gelatin in two tablespoons cold water and dissolve in one cup of canned tomato juice which has been brought to the boiling point. Add one teaspoon finely grated onion, and salt and pepper to taste. When cool and beginning to thicken, add one-half cup of mayonnaise, two cups of finely cut meat, one cup diced cucumbers and two tablespoons chopped pickle relish. (The meat may be one cup of canned ham loaf plus the contents of one 6-ounce can of chicken, or equal quantities of canned ham loaf and veal loaf.) Pour into wet oblong mold and chill. Turn out on a platter and garnish as desired. Serve in slices on crisp lettuce. This serves eight persons.

Chicken and Fruit Salad: Marinate the contents of two 6-ounce cans of chicken in French dressing for about an hour. Add two-thirds cup of canned grapefruit pulp, two-thirds cup canned diced pineapple and one-half cup nuts, and moisten with mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce cups or cream puff shells. This serves eight persons.

True Armament and Disarmament

MUCH is said and written these days about armament and disarmament. Right-thinking individuals the world over favor peace and conclude that war is not the best way to accomplish a constructive settlement. In spite of the yearning for peace and righteousness there seems to be a constant clamor, by lawmaking bodies, for larger armies and navies. The argument is that nations must continue to protect their rights through a means that is itself wrong —a paradoxical powerlment often promulgated through false propaganda.

What then can peace-loving individuals do to correct this falsity? Every Christian knows that the solution to all problems can be obtained through an understanding of the Bible, particularly of the teachings of Christ Jesus.

In the Scriptures in the command (Matthew 22:39), "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." Could one love his neighbor a friend of and hate or wish to harm him? Could one love his neighbor as himself and consistently fear and distrust him? Could fear and distrust create thought toward neighbor which would make our neighbor as ourselves, could there possibly be a desire to attack or harm one another? Of course the answer to these questions is forever No! The solution, then, is to arm ourselves with love and to disarm every phase of error that would oppose love.

In Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 23): "Christians must look up and fight against error at home and abroad. They must grapple with sin in themselves and in others, and constant warfare until they have finished their course." The only battle to be one cup of canned ham loaf plus the contents of one 6-ounce can of chicken, or equal quantities of canned ham loaf and veal loaf.) Pour into wet oblong mold and chill. Turn out on a platter and garnish as desired. Serve in slices on crisp lettuce. This serves eight persons.

Add two-thirds cup of canned grapefruit pulp, two-thirds cup canned diced pineapple and one-half cup nuts, and moisten with mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce cups or cream puff shells. This serves eight persons.

THE EDUCATION OF YOUR CHILDREN

Is there anything any more important than the proper education of your children? Could there be any greater disaster to our national life than would come from a sudden and drastic cutting of all public school budgets? Say to an extent that would deprive 1,641,000 boys and girls (possibly including yours) of the opportunity for any education whatever?

Can you afford to remain idle and silent in the face of such a possibility? Or will you join the millions of citizens who are today awakening to a very real and pressing threat to the future of our public educational institutions.

Such a threat lurks in the possibility of government ownership and operation of the nation's railroads which now contribute to public education (in the form of taxes) more than a half million dollars a day during the average school year. Government owned and operated industries pay no taxes. If, and when, the government takes over the country's rail carriers, either every public school budget in the nation will have to cut to the bone or you will have to help bear an additional tax burden of at least one hundred and fifty millions of dollars a year—the amount of total railway taxes that annually go into the school budgets of the nation.

Within a recent year, the Norfolk and Western Railway—your railroad—contributed more than four million dollars, or 50 percent of its total taxes, toward the support of your public schools—taxes that paid for the schooling of more than 45,000 children—your boys and girls.

Despite these known facts there are those who would turn the railroads over to the government—and thereby jeopardize the entire educational structure of the country. Their activities and propaganda constitute a real threat to the proper and complete education of your children. The time has come to face this threat squarely; to fight for the right of every boy and girl to the useful lives that result from adequate schooling.

Government ownership of railroads can be effected only by Congressional action; by the vote of your representatives in congress. Their vote on any measure reflects, to a large extent, the views of their constituents; your views. That places full responsibility for the solution of this problem upon every citizen; upon you. Therefore, if you are opposed to government ownership of railroads, you must express, vigorously and repeatedly, your opposition. You must demand that your representatives in Congress actively oppose and vote against it or elect representatives who will recognize the danger to public education in government ownership and operation of one of the nation's greatest industries. And you must act promptly.

NORFOLK AND WESTERN RAILWAY

down of strong holds" (II Cor. 10:4). We "must grapple with sin" in ourselves and in others—must know that sin belongs not to any child of God. Each one needs to know that hatred, envy, greed, and malice are not from God; hence are not expressed by God's man. We must know that there is no law to govern these false suggestions, and that they lose their seeming power when denied entrance into our thought. We must know that sin cannot govern or control our fellow men or ourselves. To separate the lying claims of sin from our thought of our neighbor will enable us to love him as God's child, and will thus help him also to destroy hatred and distrust in his own consciousness.

Nations are comprised of individuals; therefore the thinking of individuals constitutes the thinking of the nations. Since many individuals desire peace with their neighbors, whence does the argument for war arise? Through a false sense of patriotism, a wave of propaganda may go forth leading some to believe that they have been unjustly treated, and that they must shoulder arms and kill their fellow men in order to settle the difficulty and protect their government and their personal property.

At the base of this misinformation will often be found a sense of greed claiming to influence groups who think they may gain something by stirring up strife between nations. Certainly this lie and its effects can be neutralized by the consecrated effort of Christians to eliminate from individual consciousness the belief in hatred and to replace it with love.

At our present stage of thinking it may not be feasible to dispense with armaments, but there should be no rivalry between nations as to the method of armament. Good will does not exhibit fighting equipment or ability. If we are to exemplify the Scriptural teaching, "Love thy neighbour as thyself," competition, rivalry, hate must cease, and love must be established in individual human consciousness in order that disarmament may be accomplished on a sound basis ... The Christian Science Monitor.
